Explore Independent Wrexham

Over 80 different shops, market stalls, cafes, bars and restaurants, some in lovely heritage Victorian buildings... Then visit our stunning Parish Church, the museum, Ty Pawb our unique Arts, Market and Food hub, or Xplore! Science centre. A great day out.

Bank Street

Buy a Welsh Gold ring, nail polish, war-gaming supplies, or a vintage waistcoat. Grab a great coffee or a craft beer.

Charles Street

Bubble tea and Japanese anime, books, scented candles, and gourmet cheeses.

Chester Street

A massive selection of vintage and pre-owned gold and silver jewellery. Doggie treats, and cupcake decorating.

Henblas Street

Wooden furniture, crafting supplies, silver jewellery and Pokémon toys. Plus Yellow and Blue community hub and Xplore!

High Street

A hand made leather belt, designer jeans, or even a suit. Loads of different food and drink options to choose from, check out the quaint Overton Arcade as well.

Lord Street

Home of The Drawing Board, plus the amazing Secondhand Shed vintage and retro emporium, and some lovely pavement cafes.

South Arcade

Buy a vinyl record, a cool retro outfit, or a bra... Admire the Art Deco light from the old cinema, or drop into the Visitor Information Centre.

Yellow & Blue Hub

A truly special place, where a great food and drink offer supports a massive range of community activities and live events.

ty pawb

2022 Museum of the year finalist! Exciting exhibitions in the art gallery, an amazing variety of market stalls to browse, and some great food and drink options. Resident artists add to the lively atmosphere. Live music and all kinds of community activities go on here too.

Wrexham Museum

Inside one of Wrexham's landmark buildings, the displays and collections tell the stories of Wrexham and its people from prehistory up to the present day. There are good interactive features, and stuff for kids to do. A lovely café in the modern glass front of the building, with some great local food and drink products for sale too.

Central Arcade

Up-cycled furniture, quirky gifts, a crystal ball, healing herbs, or a nice crusty loaf of bread.

Xplore! Family science fun

Amazing experiments, curious exhibits and exciting live shows! Xplore! is for absolutely everybody, whatever the weather.

Butchers Market

A stunning Victorian building with lots of interesting stalls: books and DVDs, cards, pet supplies, sweets, delicious Welsh Lamb, or a hand-painted batik sarong, to name just a few.

General Market

Thermal gloves, Welsh souvenirs, CBD oil and herbal remedies, and bridal tiaras.

The Drawing Board

Paintings, sculpture, crafts by local artists - changing exhibitions lovingly curated, always something new to see.

Yorke Street

Guitars and other cool music stuff, trophies, fresh flowers and cuddly teddy bears.

St Giles Church

One of Wrexham's greatest treasures: glorious wrought iron gates, superb 15th and 16th century Gothic architecture, and Elihu Yale's grave. Some lovely features inside too, don't miss it.
